GOLD COINS OF THE WORLD
"New Purchases"

To our clients: This will probably be our last price list until November or December as we will be taking our summer vacation starting in September! We will be spending a couple of months in Vermont--but our mail and phones will be forwarded! In the meantime, we will be here thru the end of August--we hope you find some items of interest in our new purchases--and keep in mind that many of the coins in our recent price lists dated March, April/May and June are still available so if you can use anything--please get back in touch with us! Also--a note to our Florida customers: the battle over the sales tax has been lost! At least for the time being--so starting Sept. 1st there will be a 6% sales tax added to all coins sold in the state of Florida--so if you are planning on purchasing some coins for your collection, we suggest you do so prior to Sept. 1st!

UNITED STATES GOLD COINS

Dear Client: This is our first price list of United States gold coins in probably a decade! This is an experiment on our part to see if our collector base of world gold collectors are also interested in scarce and high quality American gold coins! My hunch is they are!! I was recently at the Central States coin show in Minneapolis buying world gold coins for client wantlists, etc. and it hit me that the prices on rare date American gold coins seemed cheap--in fact, many items seemed to be selling at similar prices to what they were a decade or more ago--so I thought the time was right to maybe add American gold to our list of countries that we offer--as many of you know, I used to specialize in rare date American gold--before the market got over-promoted--but I personally feel prices are back to reasonable levels--anyway, if you have an interest in rare date and choice quality American gold coins, please let us know---oh, a word about "slabs" is in order! Although I still dislike slabbing, I'm afraid when it comes to American coins, it's here to stay--I would prefer to deal in "raw" coins, just like the world coin market wants--but if we want to "play" in the USA gold field, "slabs" are the only "game" in town--just about the only coins we can buy at shows are already in slabs! So nearly everything in this list is PCGS graded--- but before we buy any coin, we examine it ourselves to make sure we agree with the grade on the slab prior to purchase--as we don't really care what the slabbed grade is--but "slabs" are a fact of life in the American coin field and are probably here to stay---at least for the time-being so check out our new USA gold price list and get back in touch if you see some items of interest for your collection--also we have access to just about anything you may need in USA gold coins for type or rare dates for your collection-- send us your wantlist and will try our best to be of service!
